Archery - its the law. THE LONGBOW STATUTE OF KING HENRY VIII - 1515. The definition of purpose for a Bow is simple; It is a man made implement capable of sending a pointed shaft with force, a greater distance than it could be throw by hand and thus increases the 'killing distance'. Or put another way, 'Projecting a missile with force and some degree of accuracy'.

On June 11, the Reverend Mary Edwards, of the village of Collingbourne Ducis in the UK, demanded that all members of her parish report to the village recreation ground for archery practice as required by a medieval law that has never been repealed. Or at least that's what she claimed. "It's an unrepealed law from some time in the Middle Ages," said Rev. Edwards, "and I can call all the men ...
