The traditionalists of the Solar Wind discipline teach their students that fire is the natural power of the sun, and while this art was developed in sunny mesas and rolling plateaus bathed in winds, there are other environments where the discipline was adapted. From the frozen fjords and frigid taigas comes the icy Glacial Frost variant (cold). From the tropical forests of the world comes the ...

Warder//Magus could be interesting, Spell and Board. You lose the critting spells aspect, but you gain a hell of a lot of survivability. Here's the thing: the Path of War characters are very much looking to be the 'active' part of a gestalt, their action economy well spent, compared to say, a fighter.
